

DNR PHOTO BY JEFF MARTIN

Simple measures such as seeding a logging road can be as important to aesthetic quality as they are to water quality or wildlife habitat. Through careful planning, you can minimize the visual impacts of your forestry operations. You can also enhance the scenic value of your woodland by managing for a variety of species of all shapes and sizes, as well as spring flowers and fall leaf colors.

DNR PHOTO BY JEFF MARTIN